Bisk Education, Inc. Supports Military Reservists

TAMPA, Florida – Bisk Education, Inc., a national e-Learning industry leader is supporting military reservists more extensively than other technology based companies. In an Investor's Business Daily Special Report: Tough Times for Tech, Firms Wrestle With Effects of Reservists' Call-Up published on November 7th, Bisk Education Chairman and Founder Nathan M. Bisk said, "We will not allow them (reservists) to get hurt financially. We make up the difference between what they make in the (service) and what they make here."

In the article, Bisk, a former U.S. Army soldier, also stated, "Basically, our position is we're going to support anyone who works here who gets called up. They're going to protect their country, and we're behind them 100 percent."
